PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

TICA ANNUAL REPORT 2021

Dear TICA Members,

2021 has been an unpredictable rollercoaster of a year. Despite this, I want to extend my congratulations to all of us as an association for riding it out and coming out of the other side stronger than ever. The country has been very diligent in mitigating the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic in order to forge forward with MICE business as much as we can, and we have appreciated the efforts of the government to introduce several changes throughout the year in order to improve life and livelihood. The most significant of these was the implementation of the Phuket Sandbox as a model for welcoming visitors, which was one of their most successful projects.

This year, the gears are in motion to allow Thailand to welcome MICE visitors once again, especially in the second half of 2022. The government has re-announced the successful Test & Go scheme, and there has been high demand from visitors applying to enter the country. Thailand's Public Health Ministry has approved a plan to treat COVID-19 as endemic by July, with the proper controls and procedures in place. Out of all the MICE sectors, we predict that Meetings will bounce back fastest, while Incentives may take a little longer. However, nothing can replace the immersive experience of visiting the country in person, and the incentive travel programme will once again be used to showcase the business performance of many countries, as we can see from the returning interest in both long-haul and short-haul markets. There is growing interest in all sectors, and we hope to see the first wave of Events in the third quarter, with a lot of industry players getting ready to welcome clients back again.

Beyond just its reopening, Thailand continues to grow its appeal as a MICE destination with its continued investment in Green MICE and net-zero carbon events, which has become of vital concern in many countries around the world. Thailand has become aware that it is a necessity to proceed with sustainability and environmental protection measures, and this has become a common goal across the industry, with businesses finding new ways to implement these visionary practices.

I am proud to mention that we as an association have also been very successful in alleviating the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic, and we have had no loss of membership during the last year. Because we waived the membership fee for the first year and have only asked members for a joining fee, we have in fact welcomed a number of new members to the association, and we now have over 520 organisations as members.

Despite the challenges of 2021, we were able to hold a number of activities during the year. The most significant of these was our AGM, where we were honoured to have the Minister of Tourism and Sports speak to the Association about opening up the country, the ways the government has controlled the spread of the virus, and assistance to the industry in the form of domestic promotions and schemes to help the public.

The logo for TICA (Thailand Incentive and Convention Association) features the letters 'TICA' in a bold, blue, sans-serif font.

TICA has also been privileged to work hand in hand with TCEB, who have not just been involved in the development of the MICE industry, but also in making sure that once business returns to Thailand, the fraternity is well prepared. To this end, TCEB has arranged a number of very effective training programmes, most of which have been hybrid events that have helped to develop new skill sets and increase the confidence of our members, all in keeping with the strict hygiene standards of the new normal. We have re-skilled and up-skilled ourselves, and we are confident that we can continue to serve clients despite not having in-person events for the past few years.

One of the biggest projects that TICA held in collaboration with TCEB's MICE Capabilities Department was the Coach the Coaches for MICE Industry event, which aimed to strengthen the MICE capabilities of academic lecturers in order to build high-quality MICE personnel. This consisted of five events in different business sectors, which TICA supported by bringing in experts to speak on various topics.

I would like to end by showing my appreciation for the efforts of TICA's diverse and supportive members, without whom we would not have been able to push through the hurdles of the last year. I would also like to thank the association's Board of Directors, Executive Committee, Marketing Committee, Membership & PR Committee, Capabilities Development Committee, and the TICA staff for their hard work which has paved the way for TICA's continued achievements.

Though this is the third year of us going through the challenges of the pandemic together, I have the utmost confidence that we will soon go back to business in the new normal way. The outlook seems bright, we are well-prepared, and our knowledge is now more profound. It is with utter conviction that I state that 2022 will be a better year, and that we will once again head down the familiar path of prosperity that we were on.

Established in 1999, the Convention Promotion Fund (CPF) has been transformed to become a Foundation in May 2021 under the Thai name “มูลนิธิส่งเสริมการจัดประชุม”.

CPF’s objectives remain the same with some additional points. The Foundation plans to have scholarships for junior and senior year students who are studying Tourism or are in the MICE faculties in public universities.

Objectives

- To promote marketing activities, which will lead to more international meetings, incentives, conventions, exhibitions coming to Thailand.
- To promote “Research and Development” and “Human Resource Development” within the MICE sphere.
- To assist and support local host committees in bidding for, and organising international meeting-related events.
- To coordinate cooperation between government and private agencies, and to act as a networking hub for the organising of MICE events.
- To provide advice and guidelines for the organisations related to meetings, incentives, conventions, and exhibitions.
- Running education programmes and other programmes related to MICE that will benefit the public. Also generating public interest in MICE topics, and collaborating with similar organisations in carrying out activities for public benefit.
- The fund does not affiliate with politics.

Project: “Poom Thai”

To study and publicise the history of the MICE industry in Thailand.

The meetings industry in Thailand has existed for years, and has been in operation from the Rattanakosin Period until now. It has played a significant role in the development of the country in many important areas.

Years ago, MICE was used primarily for the restoration of arts and sciences during the reign of King Rama I to King Rama III. During this time, the Kingdom saw meetings regarding the Tipitaka Council, as well as conferences about medicine textbooks in Ayutthaya, and gatherings about traditional Thai medicine.

In the later years, MICE was leveraged to promote Thailand’s role on the world stage during the reign of King Rama IV to King Rama VII. Thailand participated in international trade shows in foreign countries, and as a result, the country gained the knowledge and experience to organise the first national exhibition in 1882 for the League of Nations (now recognised as the United Nations).

Objectives

1. To promote understanding of the history of the Kingdom’s business events industry, as well as the role this industry has had in the development of various aspects of the country.
2. To promote confidence and pride within Thailand’s MICE industry. applies a proper loan contract with the association seeking pre-funding support.

MICE was also used for sustainable economic and social development. This is still happening in the present era, and is a result of the cooperation of the state, private organisations, as well as local communities. Thailand has hosted a plethora of important meetings ranging from working with the International Monetary Fund to the World Bank APEC Summit due to the strength of the industry and its stakeholders. This then led to the establishment of the Thailand Incentive and Convention Association (TICA), the Thailand Convention and Exhibition Bureau (TCEB), as well as other related organisations.

Coming out of a global crisis that has severely affected the industry, the Convention Promotion Foundation (CPF) committee decided to launch a project to study the history of the Kingdom’s meetings, incentives, conventions, and exhibitions (MICE) industry.

About the Capabilities Development Committee

The Capabilities Development Committee is responsible for developing training programmes to help elevate the knowledge base and professionalism of the Thai MICE industry. TICA's educational programme receives support from the Thailand Convention & Exhibition Bureau (TCEB)'s MICE Capabilities Development Department.

This committee is responsible for gathering Buyer RFPs (requests for proposals), which are circulated to members in the form of sales leads. The leads are typically generated by TICA's involvement with local associations in organising international and domestic events. The committee also works closely with the Marketing Committee in obtaining sales leads from both local and international stakeholders, for example corporate executives and trade buyers.
