PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

TICA ANNUAL REPORT 2022

Dear TICA Members,

Despite the difficult times that we as an association have faced in the last few years, 2022 has been a very productive year. The light at the end of the tunnel has been brighter than anticipated, and the MICE industry in Thailand is once again poised to spread its wings, and take off towards the sun. Last year saw a surge in business events after the reopening of the country's borders, and although this may still be lower than pre-pandemic levels, the MICE industry continues to see enquiries coming for later this year and even next year. The pent-up demand for travel and in-person events means that revenge travel has taken centre stage, and we foresee more and more MICE business in the near future, so we must be poised and ready to forge forward.

Nevertheless, we must take heed of the immediate challenges facing the MICE industry, and learn to adapt accordingly. Source markets are finding difficulty in obtaining seats to travel, and the cost of airfares have gone up, not least because of rising fuel prices caused by the war in Eastern Europe. Agreements to fly between countries need to be re-established, and countries will need to ensure the readiness of their craft to meet the increases in demand for both overseas and domestic travel.

The industry is also facing a shortage of good talent in many sectors, including the hospitality industry, DMCs, and convention centres, with many of our workforce leaving to find new pastures. We will need to band together to cultivate new talent and upskill and reskill ourselves to rally the industry. The forecast for the global economy continues to be gloomy, and the war in Eastern Europe will be an ongoing challenge for many of us, so caution is key in the upcoming year.

Nevertheless, our Association continues to move from strength to strength. We waived the annual membership fee for members during 2020 and 2021 so that we could aid our members in what was needed most during the peak of the pandemic, however, with respect to the improving situation in Thailand, we resumed collecting our membership fee in 2022. In the next year, we are expecting an increase in membership, with many facilities reopening, and more DMCs focusing on the meetings industry.

A large part of our Association's focus for the upcoming year is creating sustainability awareness for our members. TICA members are already equipped with knowledge about Green MICE and sustainability, and this is advancing by leaps and bounds, as the business events industry continues to cultivate more knowhow and experience in this field, ranging from food waste, green meeting arrangements, and more. Nevertheless, we will need to encourage more government and business participation in order for these initiatives to trickle down to the general population, and this is something that we hope to prioritise.

TICA
THAILAND INCENTIVE AND CONVENTION ASSOCIATION

Other ways that we hope the government will promote Thailand's MICE industry is to focus on long-term developments, such as carbon neutral practices; and to upskill and reskill both operators and the workforce in businesses, to meet the changing needs of the industry. It is also significant that the government has recognised the importance of Thailand's soft power, which will help in the long term in improving the image of Thailand as a world-class destination. It would also be remiss of me not to show appreciation for the unwavering support of TCEB over the years, and their indispensable efforts in developing the MICE industry in Thailand further.

Finally, I would like to end by expressing my sincere gratitude to TICA's diverse members, all of whom have continuously showed us support over the years, especially through the many challenges that we've faced. I would also like to extend my appreciation to the Association's Board of Directors, Marketing Committee, Membership & PR Committee and Capacity Development Committee, and all our other team members for their continued dedication and selfless hard work, without whom we would not have been able to achieve so much.

Overall, the future of the MICE industry in Thailand looks bright, and it has been instrumental in the recovery of the economy in the Kingdom, due to pent-up demand for business events, which have bounced back even faster than the tourism industry. This will bring much-needed investment to the country which will in turn boost our economy even further. As an industry, we must continue to maintain our high standards of service to provide confidence to business owners, event owners, and participants. Let's work together as Team Thailand to achieve better prosperity and better business in the future for all of us, and for the Kingdom as a whole.

Established in 1999, the Convention Promotion Fund (CPF) has been transformed to become a Foundation in May 2021 under the Thai name “มูลนิธิส่งเสริมการจัดประชุม”. CPF’s objectives remain the same with some additional points. The Foundation plans to have scholarships for junior and senior year students who are studying Tourism or are in the MICE faculties in public universities.

Objectives

- To promote marketing activities, which will lead to more international meetings, incentives, conventions, exhibitions coming to Thailand.
- To promote “Research and Development” and “Human Resource Development” within the MICE sphere. • To assist and support local host committees in bidding for, and organising international meeting-related events.
- To coordinate cooperation between government and private agencies, and to act as a networking hub for the organising of MICE events.
- To provide advice and guidelines for the organisations related to meetings, incentives, conventions, and exhibitions.
- Running education programmes and other programmes related to MICE that will benefit the public. Also generating public interest in MICE topics, and collaborating with similar organisations in carrying out activities for public benefit.
- The fund does not affiliate with politics.

Project: “Poom Thai”

To study and publicise the history of the MICE industry in Thailand.

The meetings industry in Thailand has existed for years, and has been in operation from the Rattanakosin Period until now. It has played a significant role in the development of the country in many important areas.

Years ago, MICE was used primarily for the restoration of arts and sciences during the reign of King Rama I to King Rama III. During this time, the Kingdom saw meetings regarding the Tipitaka Council, as well as conferences about medicine textbooks in Ayutthaya, and gatherings about traditional Thai medicine.

In the later years, MICE was leveraged to promote Thailand’s role on the world stage during the reign of King Rama IV to King Rama VII. Thailand participated in international trade shows in foreign countries, and as a result, the country gained the knowledge and experience to organise the first national exhibition in 1882 for the League of Nations (now recognised as the United Nations).

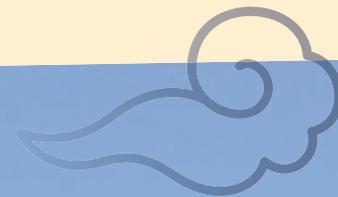

MICE was also used for sustainable economic and social development. This is still happening in the present era, and is a result of the cooperation of the state, private organisations, as well as local communities. Thailand has hosted a plethora of important meetings ranging from working with the International Monetary Fund to the World Bank APEC Summit due to the strength of the industry and its stakeholders. This then led to the establishment of the Thailand Incentive and Convention Association (TICA), the Thailand Convention and Exhibition Bureau (TCEB), as well as other related organisations.

Coming out of a global crisis that has severely affected the industry, the Convention Promotion Foundation (CPF) committee decided to launch a project to study the history of the Kingdom’s meetings, incentives, conventions, and exhibitions (MICE) industry.

Objectives

1. To promote understanding of the history of the Kingdom’s business events industry, as well as the role this industry has had in the development of various aspects of the country.
2. To promote confidence and pride within Thailand’s MICE industry. applies a proper loan contract with the association seeking pre-funding support.

CONVENTION PROMOTION FOUNDATION (CPF) REPORT

The Poom Thai Project, under CPF, organised an exhibition called “ภูมิไทย เส้นทางคุณค่าของอุตสาหกรรมไมซ์” on Friday, 29 April 2022 at the Bangkok Art and Culture Centre. The public exhibition displayed 3 zones showcasing the history and role of the MICE industry and how it served as a tool for nation-building in various aspects.

- Zone 1: The first step revitalises Thailand to globalisation
(โซนที่ 1 ก้าวแรกฟื้นฟูแผ่นดินก้าวอย่างสู่สากล)
- Zone 2: The powerful step pushes Thailand for growing stronger
(โซนที่ 2 ก้าวแกร่งนำแรงใจเป็นพลังเพื่อเติบโต)
- Zone 3: The new step of Thai MICE unites Thailand into one
(โซนที่ 3 ก้าวใหม่ไมซ์ไทยรวมใจสร้างชาติ)

An integral part of this Foundation is offering annual scholarships to 3 students in their 3rd year valued at Baht 30,000 which continues until they graduate. It helps students who lack financial resources increase opportunities for higher education, cultivates high-quality personnel for the Thai MICE industry, and inspires and motivates students to excel academically.

Mr. Aphinat Chairisin	Kasetsart University
Ms. Natacha Chotsawat	Rajamangala University of Technology Thanyaburi
